

Notice.

WHEREAS we are the owners in fee simple, of about 800 Lots, in the town of Keokuk, and about 50,000 acres of land in the Half Breed Sac and Fox Reservation, in Lee County, Iowa Territory; and having the legal and equitable possessory right to a large number of said lots--having purchased the improvements on the same, previous to the decree of partition of said lands, (wherein Josiah Spalding and others were plaintiffs, and Euphrosina Antaya, defendant,) at great cost. We hereby give notice to all persons who have "Squatted" upon said lots and lands, and hold the possession in opposition to our title and rights, that we will claim rents from the date of said partition; and we warn all persons against cutting timber, enclosing or erecting Buildings on any of said lots or lands; as no improvements made subsequent to this notice, on any of our lots or lands, will be regarded.

We offer to sell part of our lots, at prices we consider reasonable. Together with

Thirty or Forty Thousand Acres

Of the above Farming lands, situated in different parts of the reservation, in lots and parcels to suit purchasers.

MARSH, LEE & DELAVAN. Trustees.

By D. W. KILBOURNE, their Attorney in fact.

Application for lots in Keokuk, or Farming lands, as above, can be made to the subscriber at his Office in the Court House at Fort Madison. I will also be at the Rapids Hotel, in Keokuk, a few of the first days of each month, to attend to sales.

D. W. KILBOURNE.

Keokuk, Lee County, Iowa Territory, May 16, 1846.